

Can you spot the differences?

See if you can find 10 differences between these two photographs from this year's British Pharmaceutical Conference. Send in this page (photocopies accepted) with the differences circled. A winner will be drawn on January 5 and will receive a luxury box of chocolates. Entries should include your name, address and telephone number. They should be marked "Spot the difference" and sent to The Pharmaceutical Journal, 1 Lambeth High Street, London SE1 7JN. Please do not send any other material with the entry. The winner will be announced in the 8 January issue.
